

Group Assignment for Tracking, Visualization, and Segmentation - preparation for the final assignment

What is the best tracking technology for your application? Justify your solution!

- Which properties are required/made you decide for this technology?
- Why does it fit to the environment?
- How is the ease to use?
- What kind of one time calibration, daily calibration is required?
- Who will operate the system?

What user interface is required for your application? Justify your solution!

- Who is operating the user interface?
- What level of interaction is required?
- Is training required to operate the user interface?

What kind of Image Processing (Segmentation/Registration) is required? Justify your solution!